

Scavenger Hunt Answers:

1. There are 71 portraits of Connecticut's Governors. The most recent addition is that of Governor John Rowland who served from 1995-2004.
2. Charter Oak. In 1687 colonists hid the Royal Charter from King James' agents who wanted to take it and revoke the rights given to the colonists 25 years earlier by King Charles II.
3. Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Independence. These are Connecticut's original manuscripts of the famous documents.
4. Ella Grasso, who served as Governor from 1975-1980, was Connecticut's first female Governor.
5. American Bald Eagle. The Bald Eagle was declared the National Emblem of the United States in 1782 by the Second Continental Congress.
6. Canteens were carried by soldiers to hold their water and other liquids. Over the years they have been made of leather, wood, metal, plastic and other materials.
7. Typewriters. Hartford was once the home of two typewriter companies, Royal and Underwood.
8. Miss Piggy. These images of Miss Piggy once appeared on a Connecticut made, Thermos lunchbox.
9. Elisha K. Root.
10. Gatling Gun. The first Gatling gun was invented in 1862 by R.J. Gatling of Indianapolis, Indiana. The models here were manufactured by the Colt Firearms company.

Bonus:

Voting Booth. This voting booth dates from about 1900. The right to vote for all citizens of the United States aged 18 and over makes this the most powerful machine in the museum.