

SCAVENGER HUNT

Explore the Museum of Connecticut History to find the answers!

There are 73 of us hanging on the walls. A new one is elected every four years. Who are we?

Governors

Inside the trunk of a very special Oak tree this very important document was hidden from the King! What is it called?

the Royal Charter

Look up! I once towered over the Colt Factory. What am I?

the Rampant Colt

John Hancock's signature was pretty fancy. Can you find it and the name of the document he signed? A hint - it was adopted on July 4, 1776!

The Declaration of Independence

One of the most famous dogs in the world made it onto this lunchbox! Who is he?

Snoopy

I am the most powerful machine in this Museum (and the nation!). What am I?

voting booth

Campaign buttons were all the rage once. When this woman ran for governor her button asked "Are you an Ella _____ Booster?"

Ella

The symbol of America, this bird can be found all over the museum - on buckles, flags, buttons and more! What kind of bird is this?

Bald eagle

Before phones and computers, people used these to write letters to people. What is it?

typewriter