

SCAVENGER HUNT

Explore the Museum of Connecticut History to find the answers!

There are 73 of us hanging on the walls. A new one is elected every four years. Who are we?

Inside the trunk of a very special Oak tree this very important document was hidden from the King! What is it called?

Look up! I once towered over the Colt Factory. What am I?

John Hancock's signature was pretty fancy. Can you find it and the name of the document he signed? A hint - it was adopted on July 4, 1776!

One of the most famous dogs in the world made it onto this lunchbox! Who is he?

I am the most powerful machine in this Museum (and the nation!). What am I?

-
-
-

Campaign buttons were all the rage once. When this woman ran for governor her button asked "Are you an _____ Booster?"

The symbol of America, this bird can be found all over the museum - on buckles, flags, buttons and more! What kind of bird is this?

Before phones and computers, people used these to write letters to people. What is it?